Upcoming Events

Waterloo County Knitters' Fair

Saturday, September 11, 2010 from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm

Bingemans, 425 Bingemans Centre Drive, Kitchener, Ontario

Admission: $5 per person, children under 12 free.

This is the largest event of its kind in Canada. For many years, the Kitchener-Waterloo Knitters' Guild has offered a one-day fair organized "by knitters for knitters" and now presents more than 70 vendors offering the latest and greatest of knitting products. Imagine 35,000 square feet—in 2 large showrooms—dedicated to the craft of knitting, offering an incredible display of a diverse variety of yarns in an explosion of colour, knitting books, patterns, and accessories. Free information and skills seminars are offered throughout the day.

Kenora Métis Warmth and Wellness Group

The Kenora Métis Warmth and Wellness Group does a lot of good charity work by providing hats, scarves and mittens to schools. They have actively sought out other knitting groups for networking, and connected with Charlene. Charlene has been corresponding with them and is looking forward to showing us pictures and other information about this wonderful group.

Naz is running Kawartha Yarns from her home

Kawartha Yarns on Kent Street in Lindsay is now closed and Naz is running it from her house. Hours after Labour Day are Tuesday to Saturday 10am – 5pm.
